LTG NATIONAL CONFERENCE 2020

Dear LTG Rep,

I am delighted to invite you and members of your theatre to the 2020 National Conference and AGM of The Little Theatre Guild to be held at The Questors Theatre over the weekend of 17th – 19th April 2020. This year's theme is:

Outward-Looking Theatre: Listening, Learning, Engaging and Improving.

We will be offering a range of workshops, from set design and acting to marketing and the customer experience. In addition, we look forward to sharing thoughts around strategic planning for our respective organisations.

Join us on Friday 17th April for a welcoming supper in our Studio, followed by entertainment provided by our in-house laughter troupe The Errors of Comedy.

On Saturday 18th you are invited to take a tour of The Questors Theatre and meet our members working in various production departments before attending the promised workshops aimed at inspiring debate and information sharing. The LTG Annual General Meeting will take place during the afternoon. In the evening, dinner will be followed by the opportunity to see 'Hangmen' by Martin McDonagh.

On Sunday 19th tours continue followed by the LTG national committee seminar. We all then get to see the work created during the conference by members of The Questors in collaboration with some fellow LTG theatres - A Play in a Day. We finish with Q&A, a concluding address and a takeaway packed lunch before departure.

Fees are as follows:

- Earlybird prices, until 12 noon on Monday 23rd March
