

LTG Central Area one-day Conference 2022
Saturday 29 October 2022
Little Theatre Leicester

Time	Event	Information
09:00 – 09:45	Registration in theatre foyer and tours of the theatre	Coffee available
09:45 – 11:15	Seminar on Diversity	Anne-marie Greene, Criterion Theatre, Earlsdon, Coventry shares recent practise on casting, flowing on from her presentation at the National Conference in Southport
11:15	10 min walk to Curve
11:30	Guided tour of Curve followed by Q & A	Leicester’s spectacular state-of-the-art theatre designed by Rafael Vinoly. Has been a huge success in their work on Diversity and Community involvement. To include a Q & A and consideration of what Little Theatres can learn from them
12:50	10 min return walk to theatre
13:00	Sandwich Lunch in the theatre including an AGM and Open Forum Discussion: questions from the floor but preferably in advance to Mary Jones mary.jones@thelittletheatre.co.uk
14:15	Workshop: Making the most of SOCIALMEDIA	Sharon Clement, a member of Leicester Little Theatre working at Cross Productions Ltd., explains how to improve branding and increase ticket sales using modern methods
Option 1
15:15 – 16:20	Workshop: Wigs or Hair to depict a period and set design	Demonstration by Tim Hogarth Jones and Alec Davis on how to depict a period by hairstyles and set designs,
16:20 - 16:40	Afternoon tea / coffee
Option 2
15:00	10 min walk to King Richard III Visitors’ Centre where the king was found under the car park	Admission £10 (£7.25 if more than 15 of us)
15:10	King Richard III Visitors’ Centre	If you wish, you may spend longer here at the exhibition and stay for refreshment at their café.
16:10 – 16:20	10 min walk back to theatre
16:20 – 16:40	Afternoon tea / coffee
16:40 – 17:40	Workshop: The art of IMPROVISATION to enhance performance skills	Led by Tom Young from “ Same Faces ”, a multi-award nominated, Leicester based, improvised comedy group.
17:45	Evening meal at Café Roma Italian Restaurant (10 mins walk)	Choose 2 or 3 courses from the menu and state in your booking form.
18:30	Theatre bar opens
19:30	Alphabetical Order by Michael Frayn	Tickets reduced to £10 for conference attendees.
22:00	Conference Closes	