

LTG Central Regional Conference
Lace Market Theatre, Nottingham
Saturday 1 November

PROGRAMME

- 09.00 – 09.40 Arrival, refreshments and theatre tour
- 09.40 – 09.50 Welcome by Gareth Morris Chair of the Board of Trustees
- 09.50 – 10.10 Promotional Film presented by Emma Rayner - Board Member, followed by Q&A re: recruiting volunteers
- 10.10 – 11.00 Jae Marriott - Artistic Director for 2025/26, will talk about the process of selecting the plays for the season and the challenges of putting on 14 shows a year. Followed by Q&A
- Payash Raslan - Director of Home, I'm Darling to chat briefly about the production.
- 11.00 – 11.15 Tea / Coffee
- 11.15 – 12.00 Edinburgh Fringe Logistics: feedback from actors who took a play to the fringe followed by a Q & A.
- 12.00 – 12.45 AGM followed by Open Forum
- 12.45 – 13.45 Buffet lunch and networking
- 13.45 Several afternoon options:
Walking tour of the Lace Market area led by Ade Andrews (Robin Hood)
Backstage Tour of Nottingham Playhouse (there will be a charge for this)
Matinee performance of Home, I'm Darling
- 19.30 Home, I'm Darling by Laura Wade: every marriage needs a little fantasy to keep it sparkling. But behind the gingham curtains, being a domestic goddess isn't as easy as it looks. Home, I'm Darling is Laura Wade's new dark comedy about sex, cake and the quest to be the perfect 1950's housewife. A timely analysis of the gender divide, which manages to ask important questions about what women might want and how they might successfully find it. It's a sharp, funny and sad dissection of a doomed attempt to achieve marital bliss by retreating into a delusional cocoon.

Lots of local restaurants to choose from for your evening meal

If you wish to stay overnight local hotels are The Mercure and The Ibis.

The theatre is 5 minutes' walk from the Railway Station and on the tram route.

Fletcher Gate multi-storey car park is right next to the theatre.